

James Morrison

Professor

B.A., B.Ed. (Acadia) Ph.D (Ibadan)

Office Hours - 2006-07

Monday and Tuesday 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Profile

Dr. Morrison received a Commonwealth scholarship from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria and completed his degree there in 1976. He worked as a research historian for Parks Canada until 1979 at which time he came to Saint Mary's as Executive Director of the International Education Centre - a research/resource centre for International Development and Ethnic Studies. He served as Dean of Arts (1983-1989) and has also served as Chair of the Asian Studies Department and IDS. He was promoted to full Professor in 1990.

Dr. Morrison's research and teaching interests are in Global history, South East Asia and Oral history. He has held visiting fellowships at Institute of South East Asian Studies (Singapore), Hokkaido University of Education (Japan) and Jawaharlal Nehru University (India). He is past president of the Japan Studies Association of Canada, Canadian Oral History Association, Nova Scotian Federation of Heritage and the Society for the Study of Ethnicity in Nova Scotia. Former Editor of FORUM the Canadian Oral History Association journal, Morrison is now the Book Review Editor for that publication. His book publications include oral history, military history, social history, ethnicity and adult education.

Publications as Author and Editor

University in Overalls: A Plea for Part-Time Study by Alfred Fitzpatrick - edited with a new introductory essay (Thompson Educational Publishing, 1999)

Oral History in Southeast Asia: Theory and Method edited with P.Lim and C.G.Kwa (Institute of South East Asian Studies, 1998)

Changes, Challenges and Choices: Japan at the End of the 20th Century edited with Hugh Millward (Fernwood, 1997)

Alfred Fitzpatrick: Founder of Frontier College - a book for young adults (Four East, 1995)

Camps and Classrooms: A Pictorial History of Frontier College, (Frontier College Press, 1989)

Tempered by Rum: Rum in the History of the Maritime Provinces with J. Moirera (Pottersfield Press, 1988)

Work, Ethnicity and Oral History with Dorothy Moore
(International Education Centre, 1988)

Common Heritage: An Annotated Bibliography of Ethnic Groups in Nova Scotia (International Education Centre, 1984)

Wave to Whisper: British Military Communications in Halifax and the British Empire (Parks Canada, 1983)

"We've Held Our Own": The Western Interior of Nova Scotia, 1800-1940 (Parks Canada, 1981)

Kejimikujik National Park: A Guide with Leefe, Evans, and Mullen (Four East, 1981)