

Get career advice from the top.

Associate Deputy Minister of Finance, Byron Rafuse, CMA holds one of the most important roles in the Nova Scotia Provincial Government and is a SMU BComm graduate.

Attend this informal, yet engaging round-table discussion to find out why Byron decided to become a CMA and how he has used his designation to advance his career.

Monday, February 14, 2011; 2:30 to 4:00 pm
Loyola Private Dining Room
RSVP required. Send RSVPs to smurphy@cma-ns.com

CMA Information Sessions:

A CMA designation will change the course of your entire career, so it's not surprising you'd have a few questions for us.

- ▶ Monday, February 14, 2011
5:00 to 6:00 pm; Loyola 282
- ▶ Tuesday, February 15, 2011
1:00 to 2:00 pm; Loyola 276

Refreshments will be provided

To RSVP or for more information, please contact Shannon Murphy at smurphy@cma-ns.com or call 902.422.5836 extension 221.

Certified
Management
Accountants