

The Grant Thornton Nova Scotia Business Unit (NSBU) is looking for Full-Time CA Articling Students to join us in 5 of our offices (Antigonish, Halifax, New Glasgow, Sydney, and Truro).

Are you looking for a career opportunity in accounting where you can ...

Be somebody?

Your strong academic achievement is a given, but it's not the only thing that sets you apart. We're interested in who you are, what you're passionate about—all that is uniquely you.

Make the biggest difference?

We're as pleased to see a small business thrive as a result of our advice as we are working with a multi-national organization. And, we'll do what it takes—from coaching little league to volunteering at tax clinics—to make our communities stronger.

Test your limits?

Our smaller teams mean you do more, earlier in your career, with exposure to senior people and clients across a vast range of industries. We're a national, full-service firm with international presence—we have what it takes to help you learn, grow, and stretch your abilities.

We're looking for accounting students across Canada who are interested in pursuing a CA accounting designation. If you're a results-driven, team player that learns quickly and is eager to apply your knowledge and skills, then we need to talk!

Why choose Grant Thornton?

We have more offices across Canada than any other professional services firm. We're nationally aligned, yet locally relevant. Our entrepreneurial focus gives our people a greater variety of client files to work on. You will be given opportunities to interact directly with clients and work closely with senior management very early in your career. This exposure often results in earlier career advancement opportunities. Many of our professionals are renowned experts in their field who will provide you with high level technical support. Our culture ensures we are focused on helping you achieve your career objectives.

These are just some of the reasons we've been recognized as one of Canada's Best Workplaces, three years in a row. But we have a lot more to be proud of.

Our unique culture

We are committed to the professional growth of our people who, every day, make a difference. We want you to achieve your full potential and are aware that our success as an organization depends on a combination of individual and team achievements. At Grant Thornton you're sure to work with consummate professionals who love what they do. Our people truly make us different. Why is this important? Your career grows when you work with industry leading professionals on interesting assignments.

The application process:

To become a member of one of the fastest growing CA firms in Canada, please submit your statement of interest, resume, academic transcripts and other supporting information via our careers website at www.grantthornton.ca/careers/campus, or contact your career centre for more information.

The application deadline for all Full-Time CA Articling positions in NS is September 24th, 2010 at noon.
