

One University. One World. Yours.

Developing Entrepreneurship in Vietnam

Country:	Vietnam
Source of Funding:	Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA), Saint Mary's University and partner institutions
Project Number:	S64361
Total Project Value:	$5 million
CIDA Contribution:	$2.3 million
Sector:	Private sector development
Start/End Dates:	April 2008 – August 2014
Duration:	6 years
Description:	Developing Entrepreneurship in Vietnam is a project designed to promote economic growth and poverty reduction in Vietnam by developing entrepreneurial skills in managers of medium-sized businesses (both state and privately owned) and in the government departments that work with and develop policy for these organizations. To achieve this goal, the project will work to build capacity within the National Economics University to design and deliver management skills training to a variety of clients by establishing academic excellence in both teaching and research in entrepreneurship.
Partner Institutions:	The National Economics University Hanoi, Vietnam (Lead) Agency for Small and Medium Enterprise Development Department of Enterprise Reform Development Ministry of Education and Training Vietnam Chamber of Commerce and Industry

For more information please contact: international.activities@smu.ca