

One University. One World. Yours.

Community Partnership and Women's Studies in Barbados, Indonesia, and Guyana

Countries:	Barbados, Indonesia, Guyana
Source of Funding:	Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) Mount Saint Vincent University Saint Mary's University and partner institutions
Project Number:	098/S4704-053
Total Project Value:	$1,380,516
CIDA Contributions:	$748,712
Sectors:	Community Development Gender Equality
Start/End Dates:	October 1, 1995 - December 31, 1999
Duration:	50 months
Description:	This project built on established two-way linkages between Women's Studies scholars in Canada, Indonesia, Guyana, and Barbados. Through a collaborative consortium of four universities in Atlantic Canada, two universities in the Caribbean and two universities in Indonesia, Women's Studies faculty worked together through a series of workshops and field-based projects to: design curriculum, materials and methods, train women's studies specialists (both within university and the community), and conduct community-based activities and research.
Partner Institutions:	University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus, Barbados Universitas Hasanuddin, Indonesia Universitas Indonesia, Indonesia University of Guyana, Guyana Mount Saint Vincent University Dalhousie University Memorial University

For more information, please contact: international.activities@smu.ca