

A celebration of lifelong learning with Halifax Public Libraries and Saint Mary's University

Halifax Public Libraries and Saint Mary's University have been partners in providing the community with lifelong learning opportunities since 1977. To mark this anniversary, you are invited to attend a special program with renowned author Marq de Villiers, who will be reading from his recently revised and updated book, Water: The Fate of Our Most Precious Resource, winner of the Governor General's Award for Nonfiction.

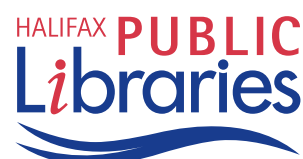

Date: Wednesday, March 19/4 p.m.
Reception to follow

Location: Saint Mary's University
Sobey Building
ScotiaBank Conference Theatre
Robie Street

Books will be available for purchase.

President's Office
Visiting Speaker Committee
Continuing Education
Sustainability Task Force
Sustainability Lecture Series
Environmental Studies Program

halifaxpubliclibraries.ca