

BrowZine: Browse, read, and monitor scholarly journals

BrowZine is a bookshelf-style app that enables you to keep up-to-date with articles being published in your field.

With its focus on current scholarly, academic content, BrowZine makes it easy to find and access most of the Library's scholarly e-journals.

With BrowZine, Saint Mary's students, faculty and staff can:

- Discover journals at Saint Mary's by subject
- Browse and read scholarly journal articles
- Be alerted when new issues of a journal are available
- Bookmark articles for reading later
- Create a personal bookshelf of favorite journals
- Save articles to RefWorks, Zotero, Mendeley, and others

Getting Started:

From a browser, click on Databases A to Z on the Library's homepage and select BrowZine

On a mobile device, download the free BrowZine app (available in the App Store, Amazon, and Google Play). Select your Library: "Saint Mary's University (Halifax)" and input your s number and password.

BrowZine allows you to create your own personal bookshelf of favorite journals.

To use the bookshelf feature, you can set up a BrowZine account (free). You will be prompted to set one up when you click ADD TO MY BOOKSHELF.

You can also set up or manage your account by clicking on Settings in the title bar.

My Bookshelf is a great way to stay up to date with journals in your field. Check back often to see new issues.

You can rename bookcases and shelves.

You can store up to 64 journals in your bookshelf.

While most of the Library's scholarly journals are viewable within BrowZine, some publications are outside the scope of BrowZine. For example:

- Non-scholarly publications (e.g., popular magazines, trade journals, newspapers)
- Older issues of journals (e.g., pre-2005)
- Journals that have gone out-of-print

To view any of these, you will need to find them via the journals search in the Library catalogue.

You will be notified when a publication is outside of BrowZine.
